Jill Weinlein,

Made in Brooklyn

The Made in Brooklyn food truck serves classic New York-style pizza. The pizza pies are made with fresh, high-quality ingredients. Chef, owner and native Brooklynite Sean Popock creates the house-made tomato sauce, sausage, meatballs and pizza dough in the truck using the same equipment found in New York's best pizzerias. He offers pizza, hero sandwiches, garlic knots and salads for lunch and dinner in a bigger than average food truck with its double-deck pizza ovens. Made in Brooklyn encourages patrons to "Hold it. Fold it. Eat it." Follow Made in Brooklyn on Twitter @MIBpizza and Instagram @madeinbrooklynypizza for hours and locations.
