

Weekend

January 22, 2016

Whitney Lader

Made in Brooklyn Opens

Chef, Owner and native Brooklynite Sean Popock is cooking up pies with fresh, high-quality ingredients, along with the house-made tomato sauce, sausage, meatballs and pizza dough all on his truck. Offering pizza, heroes, garlic knots and salads for lunch and dinner, this truck is larger than your average food truck due to its double-deck pizza ovens. They are also teaching you how to eat the pizza with their slogan: “Hold it. Fold it. Eat it.” So get ready to eat pizza without utensils. The menu has New York pizza pies with toppings including Pepperoni, Sausage, Mushrooms and Peppers & Onions, as well as regional favorites like the PPP (Pulled Pork Pizza), Margherita, Artichoke Pesto and Buffalo Chicken. Hero sandwiches include the House-made Meatball Parmigiana, House-Made Sausage, Peppers & Onions, BBQ Chicken, and Caprese. You can customize your pizza and hero orders by adding additional fresh cheese, meat and vegetable toppings. Garlic Knots and Garlic Bombs with Pepperoni Gravy (baked pizza dough ravioli stuffed with roasted and sautéed garlic and four different cheeses, served with Made in Brooklyn’s pepperoni cream sauce) are served as sides, and the House-made Meatballs, House-made Sausage, Pepperoni Gravy, and Signature Tomato Sauce are all available a la carte as well. Friday

<http://hooplblog.com/2016/01/22/weekend-95/>